

[Md. Code, Ins. § 11-219.]

§ 11-219. Deviations from rating organization rates: Prior Approval Rate Making --
Part IV. Rating Organizations and Similar Organizations

(a) An insurer may deviate from the rates filed by a rating organization if:

- (1) the insurer has filed the deviation to be applied with the rating organization and Commissioner;
- (2) the deviation is uniform in its application to all risks in the State of the class of insurance to which the deviation is to apply; and
- (3) the deviation is approved by the Commissioner.

(b) The Commissioner may approve or disapprove a deviation as if the deviation filing were a rate filing and specify the period of time during which an approval will be effective.
